Dave Osoff is a Boston based keyboardist, songwriter and performer for over 15 years, and has recorded and toured with many top regional artists. His debut cd 'Mosaic' showcases his versatile songwriting and keyboard artistry.

Joined by all star players such as Amadee Castenell (recorded / performed with Paul Simon, Paul McCartney, Branford Marsalis), and Scott Murawski (performed with Max Creek, Phish), Osoff unleashes a stunning medley of composition ranging from contemporary jazz to funk, flavored with pop, R&B, electronica and more.

From the adventurous jazz-funk of 'Why Not?', the hypnotic grooves of 'Hannah' and high energy funk and R&B of 'Freedom/Rising' and 'Mosaic', to the uplifting pop hooks of 'On Our Way' and 'Even Now', the jazzy techno-rock of QX5 and the intriguing musical journeys of 'Daybreak' and 'Undercover', Dave Osoff's music offers a unique approach.

Powerful melodies, hooks and inventive arrangements are featured, with plenty of spontaneous improvisation and musical interaction on stage. These are players with a unique musical synergy, and an intensity of spirit and groove that delivers many rewards and surprises to the listener.

"The poetry of these 12 lyricless songs is pretty damn cool Dave had better follow up this release with another, if this is truly what he's capable of."
